Childrens Program (First Day School)

Children stay with us in worship for the first 15 minutes. At 10:15 a.m., they are led to our lower level for an educational program, with supervised play provided for the youngest children.

Between Memorial & Labor Days the children are taken to a playground nearby or play in the FDS classrooms. Throughout the summer on Sundays & during the week children often help in the garden.

Eye On Racism

The Equal Justice Initiative is committed to ending mass incarceration and excessive punishment in the United States, to challenging racial and economic injustice, and to protecting basic human rights for the most vulnerable people in American society.

EJI's National Memorial for Peace & Justice and the Legacy Museum recently opened in Montgomery, Alabama.

How American Racism Influenced Hitler

From the National Council of Churches: ACT: Awaken! Confront! Transform! ACT Now! Unite to End Racism

Woodrow Wilson & Racism

This warehouse, in Montgomery, Alabama, is now the EJI office. It was one of many warehouses where slaves were chained together, awaiting trips to the auction block down by the river.
